News and Information for LEA Members

There is a difference between teaching and learning. Just because you teach something does not mean learning has occurred. Most teachers want to ensure students learn and grow from them. How you structure a lesson can support the goal of causing learning, resulting in more impactful teaching. Read more about Impact Teaching by Karen Tyi Boyes.

Gifting children Bibles, catechisms, or hymnals and instructing on how to use them is a fantastic ministry that many churches and schools have already implemented, but others haven't thought about. Learn how to Gift, Bless, and Equip your families. (Leslie Rudzinski in The LEarning Curve)

There seems to be more arguing and tempers flaring now than ever before. Teachers can help children understand what it means to have and express differing opinions in a respectful way. Teaching Students That Disagreement Doesn't Have to Mean Disrespect. (Clementina Jose in Edutopia)
