For Participants in LEA's Administration Network

Motivation is the sole factor that drives human behavior. In education, the presence or absence of staff motivation often means the difference between thriving, innovative schools with engaged students and professional and instructional stagnation. Read more at Nurturing Productive Relationships Across Your School. (Arina Bokas and Jon Wennstrom in ISTE+ASCD)

Do you have athletics at your school? What are your coaches like? Is winning more important than teaching Christian values? Glorifying God in Sport from A to Z talks about ways to glorify God in sports beyond the usual “try your best” and “give God the credit.” (Brian Smith in The Christian Athlete)

How do you feel about having plays or musicals in your school? While many schools focus heavily on core academic subjects during the elementary years, drama education offers unique developmental benefits. Learn why you should support Drama in Elementary School: 50 Essential Reasons to Teach It. (Justin Cash in The Drama Teacher)
