For Participants in LEA's Middle School Educators Network

The beginning of the school year is a time to reintroduce students to routines, classroom procedures, and the habits of homework and studying. In ELA, it also seems you must reteach communication skills. Three Necessary Lessons for the Beginning of the Year in ELA provides help with reteaching those basic communication skills. Managing stress, anxiety and mood swings is important for anyone—but it's crucial for middle school students. This is why movement and play are still so important for middle-school students. Tweens and brand-new teenagers are still kids, after all. They need a fun outlet for their abundant energy. However, when it is so hot outside, indoor PE seems to be best. Here are 5 Best Indoor PE Games for Middle School Students. (Marathon Kids)
