For Participants in LEA's Secondary Education Network.

If you're gearing up for the new school year and looking for some new ideas to infuse into Art class, look no further. 10 Engaging Art Projects for Secondary Classrooms is a collection of engaging secondary art projects that helps lighten your planning load. (Sierra Machado in That Art Teacher)

Back-to-school season is a busy, overwhelming time of year. There's so much to do that you're often only focusing on the "big picture" instead of first-week plans. Unfortunately, this often leads to doing the "same old thing" year after year. That means the dreaded syllabus review, the "get to know your teacher" slideshow, or some awkward icebreaker. Looking for something new? Try Back-to-School Activities for Middle and High School. (Write on Miss G)

Content can be a killer in history classes. It dominates everything in secondary social studies. But that doesn't mean it has to be all drill-and-kill. Try some of the 12 Classroom Activities that Awesome Social Studies Teachers Use found in Let's Cultivate Greatness.
