For Participants in LEA's Secondary Education Network.

The beginning of the school year is a time to reintroduce students to routines, classroom procedures, and the habits of homework and studying. In ELA, it also seems you must reteach communication skills. Three Necessary Lessons for the Beginning of the Year in ELA provides support for reteaching basic communication skills. (Bespoke)

Incorporating games into high school gym class won't elicit groans if you can develop genuine sports skills while having fun. 25 Gym Class Games for High Schools will add variety to basic sports knowledge and is easy to integrate into most curricula. (Julie David in Sign Up Genius)

Have you checked out The LEarning Curve, LEA's blog? It's your go-to source for contemporary insights and trends in Lutheran education. Bloggers include university professors, classroom teachers, retired educators, and LEA staff members.
